Presented By

The CG Jung Institute of Chicago Faculty*

Friday, March 26th, and Saturday, March 27th, 2010

10:00 am to 4:00 pm

The Way of the Dream DVD series provides a very rare and unique opportunity to witness Dr. Marie Louise von Franz providing Jungian dream interpretation from her consulting room. These vignettes cover a vast array of fundamental Jungian concepts such as persona, shadow, and complex as well as archetypes, objective psyche, evil, and the work of the Self all applied in the context of analyzing random dreams brought to Dr. von Franz. The true beauty of the vignettes is that they invite seminar participants to experience the interpersonal warmth, humor, and immense knowledge Dr. von Franz brought to her work as a Jungian analyst.

The Way of the Dream DVD vignettes will be shown in segments sufficient to permit small group discussion and question/answer periods facilitated by Chicago area Jungian analysts to further amplify the material. The viewing of The Way of the Dream offers seminar participants a truly exclusive opportunity not to be missed. Participants are welcome to register for one or both days of this seminar.
